

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

PolyBlend UK Limited is committed to providing products and services which constantly satisfy and exceed the specified requirements of our customers. A Quality Management System is in operation which is designed to comply with the requirements of the ISO 9001:2008 standard and to continually improve the effectiveness of the quality system and its business processes.

The company is focused to deliver its customers with high quality, cost effective products and services. This will be achieved in all areas of the business, including liaising with suppliers and customers at all times by following the key principles:

- Commitment by the management to the quality policy
- Meet the requirements of the customers and to determine their satisfaction for existing products, services and their potential requirements for the future.
- Training of all employees to be competent to follow and understand procedures applicable in the performance of their area of work within the company.
- Continuous improvements through measurable targets of our processes and procedures
- All employees shall be encouraged and empowered to participate in the continuous improvement philosophy through teamwork and task groups.
- Both external and internal audits are carried out with a view to maintaining and improving the quality system

To ensure that this policy is clearly defined, understood and effectively implemented at all stages of the Companies operations, a documented quality system has been developed to comply with the requirements of ISO 9001:2008 to which this manual is correspondingly referenced.

The Manual specifies the organisation and procedures upon which the Company policy is based. The procedures, which apply to all products of the Company, have been authorised by the undersigned and must be adhered to for the relevant activity at all stages of the operation.

All the Company procedures are relevant to the expectations and needs of our customers. The Company reviews this policy and the quality objectives at the management review meeting. The Company is committed to a continuous improvement programme.

A copy of this statement will be issued to all employees of the company.

This policy statement and the quality manuals will be reviewed at the management review meeting.
